A SUIT OF MOUSE GRAY CLOTH.

This illustration shows a good design for a winter suit. It is made in mouse-gray broadcloth, a seven-gored skirt with a circular flounce attached on in points, and a jacket ending at the waist. The motifs are of a shade duller velvet than the cloth. The cuffs turn back with a band of velvet on the edge and a motif on the outside of each.

There are six motifs on the skirt, four around each side of the hips and six down the front of the jacket giving a vest effect. The collar, which is very deep in front, is also bound with the velvet. A large velvet hat with gray plumes should be worn with this suit, which is very smart when finished.

is expected to pave the way for peace negotiations between Panama and Colombia.

English Cotton MFGs For American.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—One of the largest firms of cotton spinners at Bradford, Yorkshire, announces that they are preparing to erect mills in the United States, to which they will transfer hundreds of looms, with their complement of combing, drawing and spinning machinery, the dismantling of which has already commenced. In making the announcement the firm says, "The American manufacturers recently have made such vast improvements in the manufacture and dyeing of the finest classes of goods similar to those we produce, on which we are paying 100 per cent and upward in duty, that we are confident our present American department will not be able to pay its way more than three or four years more at the most."

WHEN YOU CATCH COLD

Do not take chances on it wearing away or experiment with some unknown preparation which will only half cure it at best, and leave the bronchial tubes and lungs weakened and susceptible to attack from the germs of Consumption.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold.

It Saved His Life After the Doctor Said He Had Consumption.

W. R. Davis, Vissalia, California, writes:—"There is no doubt but what FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved my life. I had an awful cough on my lungs and the doctor told me I had consumption. I commenced taking FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and found relief from the first and three bottles cured me completely.
